Roland Berger boosts its ranks with eight new Partners in China, Germany, France, Middle East, Austria and Switzerland

Munich, November 2020: The Roland Berger partnership has strengthened its ranks internationally. With the appointments of Alexander Eppler (Hamburg), Niko Herborg (Frankfurt), Daniel Hirsch (Stuttgart), Romain Lucazeau (Paris), Faris Momani (Zurich), Gundula Pally (Vienna), Feroz Sanaulla (Dubai) and Jun Ye (Shanghai), the consultancy is sending a clear growth signal even as the global pandemic continues.

Alexander Eppler, Niko Herborg and Romain Lucazeau are already with Roland Berger and their promotion to Partner takes them to the next stage in their career progression. The other individuals are joining the consultancy upon their appointment. Gundula Pally will assume an extended management role in Austria as Managing Partner, taking the helm of the Vienna office alongside Roland Falb. All of the new Partners specialize in different areas of expertise and will bring their experience to bear for the benefit of the Automotive, Civil Economics & Infrastructure, Consumer Goods & Retail, Financial Services, and Restructuring, Performance, Transformation & Transaction Competence Centers.

"With these newly appointed Partners, our partnership gaining a group of people who are successful entrepreneurs as well as highly competent and seasoned experts in their field. Each of them will contribute to the success of Roland Berger worldwide. I congratulate all of them and I am delighted to welcome them into the partnership," says Stefan Schaible, Global Managing Partner Roland Berger. "In these times of Covid-19, as the pandemic pushes society and the economy to the limits, we strive to be by our clients' side with help and support. Because what businesses and institutions need right now is good advice in the form of creative solutions that add measurable value. We are already extremely well placed to provide this, and our new colleagues will help us strengthen the strong foundations on which we stand."
