Roland Berger India Appoints New Managing Partner

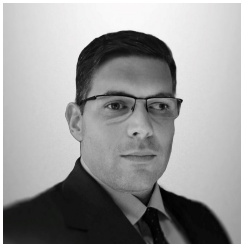

Mumbai, January 2018: Roland Berger, a leading global consulting firm announces the appointment of Ravindra Parankushan (Ravi Kushan) as their new Managing Partner in India. He assumed responsibilities on January 01 2018 and is based out of the firm's Mumbai office. He succeeds Wilfried Aulbur, who has moved to the US as Senior Partner in the Automotive Practice.

Ravi has had a distinguished career in consulting and banking and served in senior roles at a leading management consultancy and Commonwealth Bank of Australia. "Roland Berger has had a great start in India and I look forward to building scale for the firm. We will continue to excel in serving automotive, industrial, aerospace and defense clients while building capabilities in the financial services and infrastructure sectors," said Ravi.

The firm also promoted Jeffry Jacob as Partner and he will lead the firm's automotive and industrials practice in India, with support from Wilfried. Jeffry added, "the addition of these new verticals, together with Ravi's experience and leadership, will help us significantly strengthen our position in the Indian market. We will continue to leverage our global network and experience to deliver the best solutions to our clients."

Roland Berger, founded in 1967, is the only leading global consultancy of German heritage and European origin. With 2,400 employees working from 35 countries, we have successful operations in all major international markets. Our 52 offices are located in the key global business hubs.
